

Summary of Comments
Public Open House
Ayr Place Roadway Improvement Project
April 25, 2017

The Public Information Open House for the Southeast Roadway Improvement projects was held on April 25th at the Brownwood Recreation Center, 607 Brownwood Avenue SE, Atlanta, Georgia 30316. There were 25 people in attendance, including Renew Atlanta Program Management Officer Michelle Wynn, Renew Atlanta Project Director, Genetha-Rice Singleton, Renew Atlanta Communications Manager Amy Ellison, Renew Atlanta Communication Assistant and Program Manager Briana Davis, Renew Atlanta Project Manager Olivia Gauntner, Renew Atlanta Project Manager Adam Promesse, ARCADIS|BPA Joint Venture Team Members Ty Denning, Julie Price, Jes Moore, Alex Osborne, Beniquez Jones, and Councilmember Carla Smith (District 1) and Councilmember Natalyn Archibong (District 5).

2 comment cards were received for this project. Of these 2 responses, 1 was in favor of the project, and 1 did not specify their position. No respondent was against the project.

Comments from Comment Cards

- One comment requesting to relocate the sidewalk from the south side of Ayr Place to the north side
- One comment of emphatic project support due to current drainage, safety, and other problems with existing unpaved road